g for Montmirail, thence to attack Blticher, who has
;bouched.
Montmirail:
I left Chateau-Thierry at three this morning, and ached Montmirail just as the enemy were arriving at 3 gates. I marched straight on the enemy, who formed le near the village of Vauchamps. I defeated them, ok 8000 prisoners, 3 guns, and 10 flags, and drove them
Etoges. I did not lose 300 killed and wounded. This lendid result was due to the fact that the enemy had > cavalry, while I had 6000 or 8000 excellent horse, with lich I constantly menaced them and outflanked them, lile all the time I crushed them with grape from 100 ins.
15th, 3 A.M.:
I shall start at the earliest dawn and shall reach La :rte"-sous-Jouarre with my Guard quite early.
4 A.M.:
I am moving on Meaux to operate against the Aus-ans who have crossed the Seine at Bray and No-nt.
La Fert6-sous-Jouarre:
We shall probably have a great battle with the Aus-ans on the 17th, 18th, or 19th in the neighbourhood of lignes. I shall get to Meaux with the cavalry of the lard early this evening. I am not sure that the in-itry of the Guard can get there, but I hope it will at events get beyond La Fert6. 16th, Meaux, 8 A. M. .-
I am starting for Guignes, and shall attack the enemy •morrow.
